

Recipe Box Assignment

Having a collection of recipes that you know how to make and like is a great way to get started on being an impressive cook. To help you do this I am requiring the following:

*You must have a recipe box that fits 3" x 5" cards. You will receive points for bringing the box by the due date.

Due Date: _____

*You will need to keep the recipes that are given in class in your box. To receive points for these recipes (10 points each) they must be in your box (it is recommended that you put your name on your cards).

-It is your responsibility to make sure that you have all of the cards from class in your box. There will be two times that you can get the cards: during the actual lab and at the end of the terms when we organize the recipe cards and grade them.

*You will need to find 10 recipes of your own each term to put in your recipe box. These recipes can come from cookbooks, the internet, family recipes, etc. You need to gather two recipes for each category for the term.

First Term

2 Latin America Cuisine
2 Italian Cuisine
2 Scandinavian Cuisine
2 Oriental Cuisine
2 Country from your choice

Second Term

2 French Cuisine
2 German Cuisine
2 Pacific Island Cuisine
2 American Cuisine
2 Country from your choice

You may use any source to find your recipes, but they must be in recipe format:

Title
List of Ingredients
Cooking/Baking Instructions

-If you leave off any of these parts, you will be ask to redo the cards

-Recipe cards may be typed or handwritten.

-I WILL NOT accept your mom's original recipe cards, past students' cards, etc. Be honest and do the work! Please be as legible and neat as possible—you can use these cards for the rest of your life if you do a good job.

All recipes and boxes will be turned in for points at the end of each term. At the end of the semesters, you will be given your box to keep.

Helpful hint: Don't wait until the end of the term to find your recipes. You may want to write down the recipes you make for your Home Cooking Projects and Extra Credit Projects to be included in your recipe box.
